

Algebra Math Application – Execution Flowchart

Application Description

The Algebra Math Application is an application designed as a quick reference and calculator for common algebraic formulas used in mathematics, physics, and other disciplines.

To the right is a mockup of the User Interface (UI). The Primary Tabs, Content Area, Information Panel, and Menu Bar with Search functionality is shown.

Below is an Execution Flowchart showing how program logic is affected by user input and action.

For more project information, visit:

<https://github.com/deathmetallic/AlgebraMathApp>

